INTRODUCTION

Business and management situations involve winning over competition, creating partnerships, leveraging relationship and thus creating wealth. Negotiation is the tool that is extensively used for building productive relations by all those who deal with people, both in social or business environments. All managers, whether while working internally with colleagues, subordinates and boss, or dealing externally with suppliers, customers, collaborators, competitors, or other social constituents have to negotiate their way through challenging situations on a routine basis.

Critical to the success in these situations is the ability to prepare and undertake negotiation process so as to build synergetic relationships towards mutual advantage. In spite of knowing the value of negotiation and indulging in it since childhood, only a few feel confident in 'navigating through the turbulent waters of human relationships'.

This program on 'Negotiation: Strategies, Tactics & Skills' is focused on helping you negotiate your way to success so as to enable you to become an effective negotiator in social and business life, by equipping you with requisite tools, skills and confidence in this sphere.
