

Management Development Programme

on

“Procurement Planning & Contract Management”

December 5-6, 2019

Program Director

Prof. Alok Kumar Singh

INTRODUCTION

Across the industries, the major source of cost is inventory. Inventory in any system may be of the form of raw material, semi-finished or work-in-progress, repair and maintenance spares and finished but unsold goods. Any improvement in reduction of this cost leads to greater benefits for the organization. Over a period of time, due to changing business landscape, companies have realized that procurement function can be a source of competitive advantage. Hence, learning of procurement process and its implication is very important. The objective of this program is to develop insight about significance of procurement and materials management along with knowledge about vendor performance analysis, locational factor analysis, purchases management and challenges to strategic sourcing. The program has also incorporated the legal implication of bidding, the right way of documentation for the employees of materials management department. Emphasis on risk and its management and KPI's for procurement function is also being focused for holistic learning.

ABOUT IMI

International Management Institute (IMI) is India's first corporate sponsored Business School founded in 1981 with the original campus in New Delhi. The corporate sponsors included RPG Enterprises (lead sponsor), ITC, Nestle, Tata Chemicals, British Oxygen, SAIL, and Williamson Magor. It was set up in collaboration with the then IMI Geneva, now IMD Lausanne. Subsequently two other campuses were set up in Kolkata (2010) and Bhubaneswar (2011). In the last several years, IMI New Delhi has been consistently ranked in the top 10-15 Business Schools in the country and among the top 5 private Business Schools. It is accredited by the UK based Association of MBAs (AMBA), one of the top three international accreditation bodies for Business Schools globally.

IMI New Delhi has global linkages with leading schools in Europe, North America, and Asia. The Institute currently offers the PGDM, PGDM (HRM), PGDM (Banking & Financial Services), PGDM (Executive) and FPM/E-FPM (doctoral programs for full time students and working executives). In addition, it has built a vibrant Executive Education vertical offering training to management professionals from the corporate world. The Institute provides management training to foreign nationals from developing countries under the Indian Technical & Economic Cooperation (ITEC) program of the Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India.

IMI New Delhi puts a strong focus on high quality research by its faculty leading to publications in international peer reviewed academic journals. Its faculty have PhDs from top international and national universities/institutes, with many of them also having significant corporate experience.
