

Management Development Program
on
'WOMEN AS LEADERS'

December 15-16, 2020

Program Director: Prof. Mamta Mohapatra

INTRODUCTION

The emergent business scenario characterized by growing competition, increased uncertainties, and accelerated pace of change necessitate a qualitative and fundamental transformation in the role, responsibility and accountability of managers to enable the organization to achieve global standards of performance, reduce the decision response time and develop flexibility in the system so as to be responsive to changes from within and outside.

To that end managers at various levels will be called upon to provide the leadership edge in their respective work spheres in such a way that employees are able to proactively respond to organizational priorities and make positive contribution toward realization of company's objectives. In recent years, there has been sizable increase in the number of women managers who will assume higher levels of responsibility in the organization. They are indeed equal partners in enabling the organization move to higher levels of excellence. In order for women managers to continue to play significant role, it will be necessary to create an environment conducive to their growth and development.

AIM

The program aims at enabling women managers acquire and sharpen leadership competencies, reorient their mindsets and generate viable options for developing internal capabilities in their respective work units for sustained growth.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of the programme, the participants will be able to:

- Create conducive environment for free, fearless and independent working
- Develop their leadership capabilities
- Proactively respond to business challenges

CONTENT

In pursuance of the above objectives, the topics to be deliberated upon will be as follows:

- Leadership Competencies and Styles
- Sexual Harassment in the Workplace
- Communication, Listening and Feedback
- Motivational Strategies
- Using Emotional Intelligence for High Performance
- Workplace: Issues and Challenges

METHODOLOGY

The pedagogy will be interactive and participative in nature. In addition to lecture sessions, a wide variety of especially designed exercises, instruments, games and syndicate discussion will be used to provide participants with insight into leadership issues encountered by them in the organization and to generate such options as are necessary for improving their effectiveness as leaders in respective work spheres.

ABOUT IMI

International Management Institute (IMI) is India’s first corporate sponsored Business School founded in 1981 with the original campus in New Delhi. The corporate sponsors included RPG Enterprises (lead sponsor), ITC, Nestle, Tata Chemicals, British Oxygen, SAIL, and Williamson Magor. It was set up in collaboration with the then IMI Geneva, now IMD Lausanne. Subsequently two other campuses were set up in Kolkata (2010) and Bhubaneswar (2011). In the last several years, IMI New Delhi has been consistently ranked in the top 10-15 Business Schools in the country and among the top 5 private Business Schools. It is accredited by the UK based Association of MBAs (AMBA), one of the top three international accreditation bodies for Business Schools globally.

IMI New Delhi has global linkages with leading schools in Europe, North America, and Asia. The Institute currently offers the PGDM, PGDM-HRM, PGDM-Banking & Financial Services, Executive PGDM and FPM (doctoral program). In addition, it has built a vibrant Executive Education vertical offering training to management professionals from the corporate world. The Institute has been empaneled by the Government of India to train participants from developing countries under the International Technical & Economic Corporation (ITEC) program of the Ministry of External Affairs.

IMI New Delhi puts a strong focus on high quality research by its faculty leading to publications in international peer reviewed academic journals. Its faculty have PhDs from top international and national universities/institutes, with many of them also having significant corporate experience.
